To Subscribers.
Two numbers more and another volume of the JOURNAL expires. We have many subscribers who are in arrears for this volume, and some for the preceding volume. These unpaid accounts must be settled. We hope delinquents will promptly come forward and pay, and save us the trouble of sending out a collector.

Mr. JAMES CAMPBELL, of Green township, has recently purchased a yearling Durham bull for which he paid $100. It came from Athens county.

We need what is due us. Remember it when you come to town.

A package containing 8 yards flannel, 3 1/2 yards silk lustre, apool thread, &c., was lost in the city Saturday. Any one finding such a package will please send word to the JOURNAL office.

The Middleport Salt Company suspended operations Saturday. J. C. McElroy was appointed receiver, at the request of the bondholders.

See advertisement, girl wanted.

The Constitutional Amendment to provide for the taxing of dogs was lost at the late election.

The Constitutional Amendment providing for a judicial commission, submitted at the late election, carried by a large majority.

Stock sales next Tuesday, on the farm of Mr. JOHN KERNS, in Green township.

Mr. JOHN FULTZ has been appointed city weighmaster.

Mr. WM. F. CROMLEY, policeman from Second Ward, has resigned.

MESSRS. L. J. LANGLEY and ALBERT HUGHES have been appointed policemen in the Third Ward.

THANKS to Mr. ALFRED LOUCKS, of Walnut township, for some fine turkeys.

MR. LEOPOLD FRANK left Tuesday with 100 head of cattle for Baltimore.

The new President Elder for this District, Rev. J. W. DILLON, will make this city his residence.

The majority for Gov. HAYES footed up 5,549. Young beats Cary 9,963.

COL. HOY requests the Temperance ladies of Gallipolis, to meet at the residence of Mr. LAING HALLIDAY, at 2 o'clock to-day (Wednesday.)

MR. JOHN B. CLENDINEN is building a tin shop on Second street, just below Mr. PRITZ's Sewing-machine store. Mr. A. R. CHASE will occupy it.

TIPPETT seems to be still suffering from the effects of the ardent. He says that it was only the advance guard of Democracy that was driven in at our late election. Ah, Tiv., you are mistaken, for Democracy is like gumbo—the advance brings the reserve.

The steamer J. C. Crossley, Capt. Geo. W. Bax, has taken her place in the Gallipolis and Ironport trade, and will make tri-weekly trips, leaving Gallipolis every Monday, Wednesday and Friday morning. Capt. Bax is an experienced steamboatman, a thoroughgoing, upright honest business man, and should be sustained by our business community. We should patronize our local packets.

MR. E. K. CHAPDUP started for Baltimore, last Friday morning, with one of the best lots of cattle we have lately seen. The lot consisted of 67 head; thirty-two head averaged 1600 pounds, while the balance, 35 head, averaged 1300 pounds.

COL. J. C. McDONOUGH, a former member of the 7th Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, and from Athens county, Ohio, committed suicide in San Jose, California, Oct. 5th, by shooting himself through the heart. Losses in stock speculations is supposed to be the cause of the rash act.

RAILROAD CASE.—In the Court of Common Pleas some time since Mr. Wm. SNOWER recovered a judgment of about $60 against the Gallipolis, Mc-A. & C. R. R. Company. Nothing was done with the judgment, as all the personal property belonging to the company was under mortgage. When the year for which the mortgage was filed had expired the officers of the company re-swore to the mortgage and re-filed what they supposed to be a copy of it. Mr. SNOWER a few weeks since issued an execution against some of the mortgaged property, and the Sheriff was about to sell the same, Mr. S. having given bond, when the Company replied said property out of the Sheriff's hands, and the question of right of property came up before Judge LOGAN on Saturday, the mortgagees claiming the property by the mortgage. Mr. S. claimed that the copy of said mortgage on file was not a true copy, it not having the corporation seal on it. The court decided the copy a true one, and now the case goes up to the Common Pleas Court on a bill of exceptions.

Bakery Burned.
About midnight on Thursday night it was discovered that the bakery of Mrs. S. BAXTER, on Front St., was on fire. The fire department and people came out promptly at the alarm, but the fire was so far gone that extinguishment was impossible. Fences and sheds attaching it to other buildings were torn down, and neighboring roofs dampened, that the fire might not spread. The fire department threw water upon a burning room adjoining the bakery and into the bakery itself. The loss will be about $600, upon which there is no insurance. In cleaning away the debris an empty oil can was found under the corner where the fire originated, and the charred wood smelled strongly of oil, leaving but little doubt that the building was fired by some wanton party.

Mrs. W. R. JOHNSON has been running the bakery for some time, and continues to do so notwithstanding the fire, the bake oven having escaped injury. Our people owe their patronage to Mrs. JOHNSON for her industry and untiring perseverance. We hope she may receive it with unstinted hand.

Pickings.
Another church festival up town this week. The next year's almanacs have appeared. F. M. WASHURN shipped thirty-two bushels of chestnuts to Cincinnati last week. The Frank Willard has gone to New Orleans. Patriot Lodge, F. A. M. received its charter from the last Grand Lodge. JERMAN & BROS. have bought over 1000 bushels of potatoes for their boat store. Greenbacks with the new Treasurer's name on them have put in an appearance. The Fashion has quit this trade, and the Crossley has taken her place. Marrying seems to be lively just now. A. W. KERNS is assisting Auditor Evans in his office. Court meets on the 8th of next month. The Wild Gazelle and Humming Bird are having it lively again. The umbrella fixer is on the rounds. J. M. KERR & Co. are putting a new roof on their building.

COL. JOHN F. HOY arrived in this city, the home of his boyhood days, Saturday night. He is the guest of his sister, Mrs. DR. CROMLEY. On Monday evening he lectured on temperance in the Court House. The room was packed full, many having to stand, and yet for an hour and a half he held the earnest attention of that large crowd as none but an orator could. The Colonel is giving the best powers of his soul and mind, and the best days of his life to the cause of temperance, travelling and speaking continually, and judged by his effort here must be doing effective work.

This (Thursday) evening, at Alshire Hall, he will speak again. He should have a full house.

At the last meeting of the city Council, a communication was received giving notice that that portion of the upper river road which lies between the residence of Mr. E. BAILEY and that of Rev. Mr. YOUNG, in Gallipolis township, was dangerous and unsafe. The matter was referred to the County Commissioners.

Large Yield.
We received a few days since a barrel of Russet potatoes from our old friend, Mr. W. D. GRAHAM, of Clay township. They were taken from a field of 10 to 15-200 acres, in the aggregate produced 1,144 barrels, or 2,860 bushels, over 250 bushels to the acre. The crop was part Russets and a smaller part Peerless. They are splendid specimens of their kind. Who can show a more productive crop?

A REPORT has been put into circulation that the firm of E. BURRAGE & Co., the celebrated pattern makers, of which Miss HARRIE A. ANDREWS, of this city is agent, had failed. This appears to be a mistake, as Miss ANDREWS has received a circular from the firm saying that nothing has occurred which will in any way effect their relations with any of their agents.

A RECOUNT of the vote in the Jackson Senatorial District, elects MONAHAN, Democrat, by five majority.

The following names have been drawn from the jury box, and out of them the jury will be made up in the trial of JAMES W. ERWIN for the murder of DAVID LOLLIS:

WALK INTO MY PARLOR.—The newly elected county officers enter upon their duties as follows:—Representative, Jan. 1st, 1876; Probate Judge, second Monday in February, 1876; Auditor, 15th of November, 1875; Recorder, first Monday in January, 1876; Sheriff, January 1st, 1876; Prosecuting Attorney, January 1st, 1876; Treasurer, first Monday in September, 1876; Commissioner, first Monday in December, 1875; Informal Director, first Monday in December, 1875, and Coroner, first Monday in January, 1876.

It is the intention of the Prosecuting Attorney to try all the criminal cases on the docket at the approaching term of Common Pleas Court, in order to give a clear field to the new Prosecuting Attorney. Offenders will take notice.

At LIVINGSTONE'S, a place where whiskey and other "damnable" is sold, in the lower end of the city, the fictitious science of ANDY SEAR was too much for three of the boys, on Friday. He wickedly, feloniously, and all that sort of thing, got away with them.

The first quarterly meeting for this Conference year, was held by the M. E. Church, this city, last Saturday and Sunday. On Sunday forenoon the new Presiding Elder, Rev. J. W. DILLON, preached an able sermon to a large audience. This Society hope to have the basement room of their new church ready for occupancy by Christmas.

Excellent roads, and beautiful weather for all work.

Rev. I. Z. HANING and his daughters went to Athens on the 23d, to attend the funeral of his aged mother, he having received a telegram of her sudden death.

Rev. R. DUNN, of Hillsdale, anticipates spending the winter in this part of Ohio. The friends of education are fortunate in having such a man in their midst, for the promotion of its interests in this place.

The United Brethren have a new preacher.

The college building is pronounced by travelers to be the best in Southern Ohio.

All are glad the election excitement is past, and pleased that a good feeling still exists with neighbors and friends.

Old Raccoon has some redeeming qualities, and she is still coming up, and will yet be an honor to the county.

R. P. PORTER, Esq., has removed his family to the present. Mrs. Porter seems to be regaining her health slowly.

"Drummers" are quite numerous in our place of late.

Farmers are threshing their buckwheat, and it is of extra quality this season. M. S. GILES had sixteen bushels from less than one bushel of seed.

Fresh pork is being had within a few days, it readily sells for ten cents per pound.

The cabbage crop is of good quality, and generally abundant.

P. S. "Keep cool," friend "Blix," about the bridge. A mistake made in the measurement of the creek is the cause of delay by the workmen. One abutment had to be moved several feet. The "Dutchman" that got about four hundred dollars for a small bit of land must be happy sure—but they are a few set of people, and not at all unreasonable, (as you suppose).

A Too Literal Compliance.
[From the Dorchester County (Md.) Democrat.]
A gentleman from the Neck says: Some years ago the Rev. Isaac Collins was preaching at "Speldon's" Church, Neck district, and was very much annoyed at his congregation turning in their seats to look at every new arrival. At last he could stand it no longer, and exclaimed: "There is one special request I desire of this congregation, and that is that they will turn all the seats around so as to face the door before I preach here again." His request was attended to, and on Sunday when the Rev. Mr. Collins walked upon the pulpit he looked around at the backs of his audience, and was so overcome with emotion that he just took his seat and spoke not one word that beautiful Sabbath evening.

A Raid of Horse Thieves.
MARTIN, O., Oct. 17.—Frank Boyce, a member of a gang of horse thieves who have been carrying on their thieving in this part of Ohio and the Kanawha Valley since the war, was arrested in Meigs county Friday morning, charged with stealing a horse belonging to E. Fisher, of Zaleski, and was brought to this place last night and arraigned before Equire Robertson. He waived an examination, and was sent to the Vinton county jail this afternoon, to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Our Homer rests, life's journey's o'er, With him the distance soon was trod; And now while angels 'round him sing, High up in heaven he dwells with God.

His brilliant eyes we no more see, His cheerful voice we no more hear; We would not wish him back again, But by God's grace we'll meet him there.
